

2018 BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

WHAT IS BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP?

To help the government fight financial crime, federal regulation requires certain financial institutions obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

EFFECTIVE MAY 11, 2018

Per the new rules under the Bank Secrecy Act, each time an account is opened on behalf of a Legal Entity, additional identification documents will need to be provided. This applies to all new accounts opened going forward (including CD and loan renewals), and not just new customers opening an account. A Beneficial Ownership Certification Form should be completed to gather all necessary information.

WHO NEEDS TO COMPLETE A BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP FORM?

This form must be completed by the person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity.

- A legal entity includes a corporation, a limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country.

WHAT INFORMATION DO I NEED TO PROVIDE?

This form requires you to provide identifying information for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

- Each individual who has 25% or more equity interests of the legal entity customer (beneficial ownership in the legal entity); AND
- One individual that has significant managerial responsibility for the legal entity (e.g., a CEO, CFO, COO, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer)

The identifying information required for each of the above includes:

- Name
- Address
- Date of birth
- Social Security number
- Identification document

If you open an account on behalf of a legal entity, you will be required to provide the appropriate documentation and certify that the information is true and accurate to the best of your knowledge.

BUSINESS CUSTOMERS

For business customers that will be frequently opening new accounts and/or loans, please keep this identifying information current and available, as it will be required each time you establish a new account or loan, or make changes to the signers on any account. In order to avoid future delays, you may want to obtain and securely store the required identifying information (bulleted above) of key individuals.

Thank you in advance for working with us to comply.
Your business is important to us, and our goal is to keep the account-opening process smooth and efficient.

31 CFR § 1020.230 CERTIFICATION REGARDING BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF LEGAL ENTITY CUSTOMERS

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

This is an optional form provided for your convenience. The required information may be provided in other formats. When completed, this form is provided to the financial institution where the account is opened. DO NOT SEND TO FinCEN.

Where may I obtain a copy of the form?

A copy (pdf) may be downloaded from the FinCEN website at www.fincen.gov under the “Filing Information” tab. The form may be completed on a computer using the free Adobe Reader software.

What is this form?

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

Who has to complete this form?

This form must be completed by any person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: (i) a bank or credit union; (ii) a broker or dealer in securities; (iii) a mutual fund; (iv) a futures commission merchant; and (v) an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

When you open a new account on behalf of a legal entity, the financial institution will ask for information about the legal entity’s beneficial owner(s), including their name, address, date of birth and social security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of Non-U.S. persons). The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver’s license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form.

Beneficial owners are:

- (1) Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation; and
- (2) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of “beneficial owner” may vary. Under section (1), depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (1), you must provide the identifying information of one individual under section (2). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30% equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (2)), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (2) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (1)) a legal entity may have multiple “beneficial owners,” this form requires you to list only those that own 25% or more (up to five) under each of the two prongs of the definition above. If appropriate, the same individuals may be listed under both prongs.
